Finally, read the following reminders from Financial Aid and the Graduate Office.

FINANCIAL AID & TUITION IMPLICATIONS

Withdrawing or going on hiatus may have Financial Aid implications. Depending on your Last Date of Attendance, you may be required to return some or all of the funds disbursed to you as part of your financial aid package. In addition, you may be required to begin payment on existing loans. If you notify SFAI of your intent to withdraw or go on hiatus after the end of the add/drop period, you are not eligible for a tuition refund. Students who have borrowed federal loans for their education at SFAI are required to complete loan Exit Counseling online StudentLoans.gov. If you have questions regarding your aid, refund, or repayment status in the case of hiatus or withdrawal, contact Financial Aid at financialaid@sfai.edu, or 415-749-4520.

GRADUATE STUDENTS (MFA, Low-Residency, MA, Dual Degree) and Post-Baccalaureate Students are required to:

1. Return all their Fort Mason Campus keys to Graduate Programs Staff.
2. Vacate their studio (if applicable) within 10 days of the submitting the Hiatus/Withdrawal Form.
